If he retires and stays retired we must get a champion from somewhere, of course. But if he keeps right along at the game the writer doubts whether he would be able to held his own

I draw my conclusions from what I have seen of other pugilists. At Johnson's time of life two years works great havoc. I have known famous fighters who, after passing the 34year mark, have sloughed away in workmanship to such an extent that it was pitable to one who remembered them at their best to see them in action. And they were not all fellows who dissipated, either.

The writer believes there will be a new heavyweight champion two years from now if there is not one sooner.
And this is by no means an inference that I consider Flynn's chances of gaining the title throughly hopeless, I am free to say that I hardly look for
